SHERIFF'S OFFICE ARRESTS HUDSON WOMAN FOR ENDANGERING WELFARE OF 1 YEAR OLD CHILD

HUDSON, NY- Columbia County Sheriff David P. Bartlett reports that 27 year old Nichole Potter of 7th Street Hudson, NY has been arrested and charged with Endangering Welfare of a Child.

On November 28th, 2014 Sheriff's Deputies were conducting an eviction at the residence of Nichole Potter in the City of Hudson. Upon entering the residence Sheriff's Deputies located a 1 year old child that had been left alone unattended in a crib.

Potter was arrested by 1st Sergeant John Rivero and Deputy Jason Garvey and charged with Endangering the Welfare of a Child, a Class A Misdemeanor. She was arraigned before the Honorable Judge Robert Brenzel in the Town of Greenport Court, and released on her own recognizance. Further Court Date was set for Potter to return to Hudson City Court on December 1st, 2014.

Sheriff Bartlett stated, "An incident like this could have ended tragically if not for the quick actions of the Deputy Sheriff's. I would like to commend 1st Sergeant Rivero and Deputy Garvey for their keen observation in locating the infant inside the residence.

Sheriff's Deputies were also assisted at the scene by Columbia County Child Protective Services personnel. Columbia County
