Sheriff Urges Safety for New Year's Celebrations

HUDSON, NY-

Columbia County Sheriff David P. Bartlett reminds everyone that with New Years Eve approaching, many celebrations will be observed and he asks that those partaking in them do so responsibly.

Additional Sheriff's Patrols will be out New Years Eve to enforce the Vehicle and Traffic Laws of the State of New York and to help insure the safety of the motoring public.

Drinking and driving is a serious offense that claims the lives of innocent victims annually and we want to do everything possible to prevent people from driving while intoxicated.

If you do plan on celebrating New Years Eve, have a designated driver with you who will not be consuming alcoholic beverages and can get you home safely.

We believe that enforcement along with education of the severe consequences associated with driving while intoxicated will help to decrease the number drinking and driving related incidents.
